LIKE PENSION PLANS

Veteran Employes to Be Cared For by Car Company.

Washington Railway and Electric Company Will Try a New Scheme. Eligible List Divided Into Classes, According to the Length of Service and the Wages Received.

Employes of the Washington Railway and Electric Company are much pleased with the plans for a pension system that has been arranged to go into effect January 1, 1907. The pension system is something that few of the street car companies in the country have attempted, and this is the first time it has ever been tried in Washington. The movement was started a lit- Southern firsts, loss off, 24a25; guinea eggs, 12a13.

tained the age of over seventy years, whose retirement is compulsory; those under seventy and over sixty, who have been continuously in the employ of the company, or who, in the opinion of the pension board, have become physically disqualified through service with the company, and those who have been for in the line of duty for which they are stitution east of New York, neither wholly nor partially to blame. All employes who have received more than $1,500 per annum for five years immediately preceding their retirement are ineligible.

Physicians will be provided by the pension board, whose duty it will be to examine all applicants for pension through physical disability, and determine the justness of their claim. The amount of the pension will be determined by the salary of the employe for the ten years previous to his retirement, it being worked on a percentage basis. All of the pensions issued by the board are to be

Will Do Much Good.

H. W. Fuller, general manager of the company, was very optimistic as to the good that would be done by the introduction of this system.

"It will, unquestionably," he said, "bring employe and employer closer together than before. It will act as an incentive to many of the younger men entering the service, and will relieve the minds of the older ones, to whom the problem of support, after their retirement from the company, has always been a serious one. Of course, there are men in this company but, on the whole, I think it will do much
